Gov. Daugaard Extends Capital for a Day Invitations

PIERRE, S.D. – Gov. Dennis Daugaard is extending an invitation to communities across South Dakota to apply to be South Dakota's Capital for a Day.

Activities for the day will include tours around each town agreeing to host the event. The Governor will have a roundtable lunch with community leaders, followed by a community roundtable meeting. In addition, Gov. Daugaard and other state officials will talk with interested constituents.

Each Capital for a Day will conclude with coffee with the Governor.

"I look forward to meeting South Dakotans in their home towns," Gov. Daugaard said. "It's a unique opportunity for me to get to know them, find out what issues are on their minds and discuss the future. I want to thank communities in advance for agreeing to host the Capital for a Day program."
